

Shirt Payment Options

Because we're so close to the actual crawl date of May 27th, I am going to have to place the order for the t-shirts no later than the morning of Wednesday, 17 May 2006. That's THIS WEDNESDAY.

Several people have been asking me how much shirts are going to cost. I can now answer that question, and the price is $15. You can pay in one of two ways:

1. Give me cash.
2. Pay me via PayPal:
Make payments with PayPal - it's fast, free and secure!

Please get any further shirt orders and payments in to me as soon as possible. Thanks!
