Smoking in the HRM

As many people know (and relish!) a new bill concerning smoking in public places has come into effect as of 01 Jan 2003. This website, has all the information you should need about these new regulations, including the bill itself.

The thing I find the most interesting are the fines ($200 for an individual or $500 for a corporation), and the fact that "any member of the public can report their concerns to the HRM By-law enforcement office at 490-4000".
